

Name: Jackie Cook

Placed As: Project Manager - Data

Company: Marketing Delivery

How did you first come to work with Copeland?

I was approached by Julia via LinkedIn.

What career goals were you trying to achieve?

I'd been made redundant and was debating on what path to take next. And then this opportunity came up that seemed great.

What have been the benefits of working with Copeland?

You genuinely know your stuff. You take the time to really understand your client's needs and whether candidates like me are a good fit and have got the skills for the job.

What's it like working with Julia?

She will back you all the way. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

You genuinely know your stuff. You take the time to really understand your client's needs and whether candidates like me are a good fit and have got the skills for the job.

Jackie Cook, placed as Project Manager - Data, Marketing Delivery